By Dr. Seuss

Answer the questions below in complete sentences on your own paper.

History Skills Required:

Questions:

1. Why are the two sides fighting?
2. In your opinion which side is right or are they both right? Why?
3. How does the book end?
4. Did you enjoy the story? What did you like or not like about it?
5. What do you think this book has to do with history?
6. Imagine you were Dr. Seuss and you decided to write one more page of your story. Write an “ending” for the story of at least one complete paragraph in length.

-OR-

You may, instead of writing a paragraph, draw a large picture to represent the new last page of the story.
